STONE ISLAND

STONE ISLAND CONTINUES ITS FRIEZE GLOBAL PARTNERSHIP AT THE LA 2026 EDITION

LIMITED-EDITION COLLECTION INTRODUCED FOR THE FIRST TIME

Stone Island returns to Frieze Los Angeles 2026, continuing its global partnership with Frieze and reaffirming its long-standing commitment to supporting emerging artists and galleries through research-led, material-driven projects.

For the seventh iteration of its Frieze uniform T-shirt series, Stone Island collaborates with American interdisciplinary artist Jamal Cyrus, whose work will be worn by Frieze personnel throughout the Fair. The project reflects a shared interest in experimentation, research, and the translation of conceptual ideas into physical form.

Expanding on Cyrus's practice, Stone Island will also present a limited-edition garment-dyed T-shirt, overprinted with a digital allover print and finished with a raised textured print. Conceived as a collectible garment, the piece bridges art, design, and function and will be available in limited quantities from February 26th at the Fair, and at the Stone Island La Brea Avenue Flagship in Los Angeles.

"Frieze has become an important cultural moment for Stone Island" says Robert Triefus, President & CEO of Stone Island. "Our partnership allows us to support artists and galleries whose work aligns with our research-driven ethos, while continuing to engage our community through meaningful, material-led projects."

Jamal Cyrus is an American interdisciplinary artist whose research-driven practice engages collage and assemblage to examine the layered residues of history embedded within material, sound, and image. Drawing from archives of Black political thought, experimental music, and diasporic culture, his work investigates how aesthetic forms can carry and transmit suppressed narratives across time. Cyrus is presented at Frieze Los Angeles 2026 by PATRON gallery as part of the Focus section.

At this year's Los Angeles Focus edition, Frieze will showcase a total of 15 selected emerging galleries and their artists, these include: Anthony Gallery, Andrew Park | Bel Ami, Soshiro Matsubara | Company Gallery, Sergio Miguel | Dreamsong, Tamar Ettun | Fernberger, Greta Waller | Gordon Robichaux, Uzi Parnes | Lyles & King, Ren Light Pan | Make Room, Erica Mahinay | Murmurs, Y. Malik Jalal | Ochi, Africanus Okokon | Carlye Packer, Andy Robert | PATRON, Jamal Cyrus | Sea View, Zenobia Lee | Superposition Gallery, Greg Ito | Hannah Traore Gallery, Turiya Adkins.

Frieze Los Angeles will take place from February 26 to March 1, 2026, at Santa Monica Airport, Los Angeles, CA.

#StoneIsland #FriezeLA

About Stone Island
Stone Island is a global leader of product design and garment innovation. Founded in Italy in 1982, it has consistently pushed fabric technology and experimentation, particularly focusing on functionality and utilitarianism. Design is driven by purpose, resulting in an immediately recognisable signature of cut, form, materiality and colour. For over four decades, Stone Island has built an ever-growing worldwide community which both celebrates the brand's heritage and is activated by new product developments.

About Frieze
Frieze is a leading global contemporary art organization, recognized for its art fairs, publications and digital presence. Founded in 1991 with the launch of Frieze magazine, the brand has grown to encompass eight of the most significant art fairs worldwide in cities including Chicago, London, Los Angeles, New York, Seoul and Abu Dhabi. These events attract leading artists, galleries and collectors, fostering innovative dialogues and practices within the art community. Committed to expanding the reach and understanding of contemporary art, Frieze also hosts year-round curated programs and associated initiatives, such as No.9 Cork Street, Frieze House Seoul and Frieze Connect, that enrich the cultural landscape. With a dedicated team passionate about the arts, Frieze remains at the forefront of artistic exploration and cultural discourse, connecting diverse audiences with groundbreaking artists and their work. Frieze is part of the MARI network.

STONE ISLAND Press Office_Via Forcella 5_Milano_ Italy
stoneisland@stoneisland.com stoneisland.com