MONCLER + JIL SANDER

Moncler and JIL SANDER present a collection fusing functional elegance with the beauty of the outdoors

Milan, November 18, 2025 — The debut Moncler + JIL SANDER collection draws inspiration from the tranquil elegance of the natural world, an endless source of influence in shape, silhouette, and color palette, and a subtle nod to Moncler's mountain heritage. Known for its sophisticated precision, JIL SANDER's design language is ever-present throughout.

JIL SANDER has become a defining voice in contemporary design through its distinctive fusion of pure forms and exceptional craftsmanship. The co-created Moncler collection embodies these iconic codes – clean lines, refined silhouettes, neutral palettes, and natural textures – reinterpreted through Moncler's signature aesthetic and advanced winter insulation expertise. Here the two worlds meet in a play of contrasts, the soft and the tough, the plush with the hardy and functional.

The collection is defined by voluminous layers and a sense of 'roundness' drawn from the great outdoors. From snow-capped peaks and rolling hills to dense foliage and smooth pebbles, the natural world's curved forms inspire bulbous jackets, padded cardigans, and dome-shaped skirts. The same inspiration extends to a jewellery-like silver-tone pin, curved and circular, echoing the outline of Moncler's logo and offering a subtle yet distinctive nod to the brand's identity.

Natural fibers elevate the collection's refined sensibility, with a focus on soft double wool, lightweight washed cotton twill, and an innovative long-haired wool conditioned to create a fluid, floating movement in motion. Plush cardigans and coats are layered with Moncler's signature down-filled nylon, merging timelessly luxurious fabrics with cutting-edge winter warmth.

The collection's display of experimental design comes to life through a series of short films and imagery shot in a digital studio, pairing a cast of models with projections of majestic natural landscapes. Towering pines and snow-capped peaks, an homage to Moncler's alpine origins, form the serene backdrop for pieces that capture the calm beauty of nature, crafted from fabrics that move with organic grace.

Moncler + JIL SANDER is available now in selected Moncler stores and on moncler.com, as well as selected JIL SANDER stores and on jilsander.com. The collection will also be featured in a special pop-up at Isetan Shinjuku, Japan, with menswear on the ground floor from November 19 to December 2, and womenswear on the third floor from November 19 to 25.
