The communication of the intermediary must be received by the Company within the end of the third trading day prior to the date on which the Shareholders' Meeting is convened, and, therefore, within 17 March 2025. Nevertheless, the right to intervene and vote will be granted also to those whose relevant communication is received by the Company after the aforementioned term of 17 March 2025, provided that it is received prior to the beginning of the Shareholders' Meeting works.

Intervention at the Shareholders' Meeting is governed by the relevant laws and regulations, as well as by the provisions contained in the Company's bylaws (the Bylaws) and the rules of Shareholders' Meetings, which are available on the Company's website (<http://www.monclergroup.com>, Section "Governance/Documents and Procedures").

The Company may give a single response to questions regarding the same matters. A response made available in hard copy for each shareholder with voting rights at the beginning of the Meeting shall be considered as given during the Shareholders' Meeting.
